NEED A CHIROPRACTOR?

We have been asked by many of our residents is we know of a good chiropractor.

Well we can recommend a GREAT chiropractor...

Dr Stephen Nault conveniently located at 33 Oak Street.

Call Steve for an appointment at 508-438-1444

WORCESTER SNOWIEST CITY IN THE U.S.

Topping 108.9" of snow, Worcester wins the distinction of the snowiest city in the U.S (as of March 21st) Congrats HH residents, we have the bragging rights over every other major U.S. city!

On March 4th Allan Rawson passed away at St. Vincent Hospital. He was a resident of the Highland House since 1965 and known to many residents for his gregarious and engaging nature. Alan was a teacher in the Worcester Public School System for 33 years and was fluent in French and Spanish. He also taught courses at Woodland Prep and Assumption College. He had a love for classic cars and the arts. Farewell Allan, we will all miss you.

LUNCH AT THE HIGHLAND HOUSE BISTRO

Fran Dereda's Wednesday lunch program has great luncheon selections and all items are reasonably priced. If you have not had the opportunity to try out the Bistro, stop by on any Wednesday from 11:30 AM to 1:30 PM.

NEW SIGN

We are scheduling the middle of April for installation of our new sign. We have seen the finished product and are chomping at the bit for the weather to break.

SPRING PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE

April will begin our spring apartment maintenance program. We will be changing your air filters, batteries, and perform plumbing checks. If you have any issues pertaining your apartment home, do not hesitate to contact the office in advance of any inspection

This story can fit 150-200 words.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Organization

We're on the Web!

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
